

CANNERS TAKE FIRST GAME OF SERIES WITH HELENA

A three-bagger, two two-baggers, a single, a pass and three errors, accounting for five runs, gave the Cannons the first victory in the Ogden-Helena series yesterday afternoon in the first inning. "Rex" Ames, the crack Vigilante pitcher, who has proven irresistible on former occasions against the Cannons, was the particular victim and though he recovered enough of his old form to make the remainder of the game interesting, his measure was taken by Rustenhaven, the local southpaw, in a most convincing fashion.

In yesterday's game Rustenhaven beat his record of strikeouts in his great game of last week, ten Vigilantes falling before his mysterious delivery. He was found, however, for ten hits and four passes, but kept them well scattered. Although he pulled himself out of a couple of tight places with heady assists and good control, the errorless support he received held down the number of Vigilante scores to a considerable degree.

His opponent, Ames, was unfortunate yesterday in receiving poor support. Lussi dropped two flies that landed right in his hands; Crittenden was pegging bad, and with additional errors by Rader and Dean, Ames got the sympathy of the fans.

The eight frames he allowed 12 hits and four passes, evening up the record with strikeouts.

The last batter of the day was Daschbach, who left fielder, who got a three-bagger and two singles in four times up. Rader was close second, with a three-bagger and a single. Cobb also got a three-base hit, while Ellis kept up his good record with a single and a double hitting 1,000. Ellis has batted .845 in the last four games, making eleven hits in 13 times up.

The Cannons put the game on ice in the first inning with five runs, while the Vigilantes got into the counting column with one. In the first half, Rustenhaven was a bit shaky and passed Daschbach, who advanced to second on Rader's out. Rustenhaven to Wools—stole third and scored on Lussi's sacrifice fly. In the meantime, Quigley had been passed and was pegged out at second on an attempt to steal shortly after his team mate scored.

Dowling started the second half with a two-bagger. Wools reached first on a fielder's choice and Dowling was tagged between second and third. Wools went to second while the Vigilantes were working. Dowling, Jones fanned and Cobb was passed. Wools and Cobb then attempted a double steal, drawing a bad peg from Crittenden and on the error both runners got a base. Rader scored them with a three-bagger and then went across the plate himself on Rader's single. Ellis poled out a two-bagger, sending Rader home. Seabough reached first on Rader's error and Ellis went to third. The captain worked Crittenden for another bad peg, on which he advanced to second, while Ellis scored. Rustenhaven struck out.

"Dad" Clark opened the second inning with a two-bagger and Dean struck out. McNeil went out, Dowling to Wools. Clark advancing on the play, and Crittenden went out, Rader to Wools.

Dowling hit a high one to Lussi, who dropped it, and the runner was safe at first. He advanced to third on Wools' single and scored on Jones' duplicate hit. Jones' single was a grounder to right field which Dean booted and on the error Jones continued to third and Wools registered. Cobb went out, Rader to Clark, Rader struck out and Rader filed to Lussi.

In the third, Ames struck out, Daschbach and Quigley each got a single, Rader filed to Rader and Lussi was put out by Wools' unassisted.

Ellis singled and on Seabough's duplicate hit tried to get to third, but was beaten to it by Lussi, who pegged to McNeil. Seabough was forced at second by Rustenhaven and Dowling filed to Quigley.

Helena advanced a point in the fourth. Clark struck out. Dean got a two-base hit and scored on McNeil's single. Crittenden struck out and Ames filed to Dowling.

Wools got a pass and Jones filed to Rader. Wools tried to steal second but this time Crittenden's stir was unerring and the runner was out at second. Cobb filed to Lussi.

One of the features of the game was in the first half of the fifth, when Jones stopped Daschbach's ho grounder, which went down the third base line, and made a great peg to Wools. Rader grounded out to Wools. Quigley got four balls and Lussi sent a high line drive to Dowling.

Risberg singled and was sacrificed to second by Rader. Ellis walked and Seabough filed to Daschbach. With Rustenhaven up, Ellis and Risberg worked a double steal and then "Rusty" struck out.

The sixth was brief. Clark, Dean and McNeil went out by the "air" route. Ellis, Jones and Cobb accepted the chances.

Dowling filed to McNeil, Wools grounded to Clark, and Jones filed to McNeil.

Rustenhaven tightened up on Crittenden and Ames in the seventh, striking them both out. He loosened up on Daschbach, who poled one to center that got by Cobb on a bad bound and "Dash" reached third. "Rusty" then struck out Rader.

Ogden counted another in the second half. Cobb landed on the ball for a three-base hit and Risberg fanned. Rader then poled a high one to Lussi, which the latter dropped in his eagerness to return the ball to the plate. On the error Cobb scored and Rader got to first. With Ellis up, Rader was caught napping at first, and was out a "mile." Ellis was passed and stole second and Seabough filed to Rader.

In the first half of the eighth, Quigley filed to Wools and Lussi singled. Clark struck out and Dean sent Lussi to third with a single. McNeil choked the bases on a pass and Rustenhaven saved himself by striking out Crittenden.

Rustenhaven got his hit, a single, in the second half, and advanced on Dowling's sacrifice. He advanced again on Wools' out, Quigley to Clark, and scored on Jones' single. Cobb ended the inning with a fly to Daschbach.

The visitors got their third run in the final. Gleason, batting for Ames, filed to Ellis. Daschbach singled, was put on third with a two-bagger from Dean's bat and scored on Rustenhaven's wild pitch. Quigley struck out and Lussi went out, Rustenhaven to Wools.

MELTER GOES UP IN THE AIR IN THE SEVENTH

Salt Lake, July 1.—Bunched hits in the seventh inning and Cy Morgan's tight pitching in the pinches gave Salt Lake an 8 to 2 victory over the Boise Irrigators at Lucas field yesterday afternoon. The score does not indicate half the game that the teams put up.

For awhile it looked like big Steve Melter would hold the Skyscrapers to two scattered hits, but Huelsman started a rally in the seventh inning. Try as he might Melter could not get out of the cloud in the seventh inning when the Skyscrapers touched him up for seven bingles and batted around.

Up to the seventh inning Melter had the Skyscrapers on his list. The fans were on edge for the rally and the few who were present did all they could to help matters along when it was once started. The contest was full of fight from the start and each team pulled off two snappy doubles which cut off runs at the plate.

LaRocque Injured.

Umpire Sam LaRocque had to retire from the game in the third inning when a foul ball penetrated his mask and cut his nose badly. Bert Spencer and Len Scott were selected by Managers Hester and Jensen and got away with the indicator work in great style.

By winning yesterday's contest Salt Lake still leads Ogden by half a game, with Murray and Boise out of the running. Both Helena and Boise are fighting Ogden and Salt Lake and the remaining games promise to furnish plenty of fire and excitement for the fans.

The Skyscrapers were the first to score. In the first frame Potts singled to Schimpff and Hester singled to left. Huelsman poled a drive to right field and Bauer dropped it after making a good run. Hester went to third, French picked on a bender and singled to left, scoring Hester and sending Huelsman to second. Davis hit to Bostick, who, with the help of Schimpff and Thomas, completed a double and retired the side.

Bostick tied the score for the Irrigators in the opening of the second by driving a high one over the left field fence. Boise's other tally came in the fifth inning. Weaver doubled, but was caught off second (Tonneman to Potts), and Moorehead walked. Schimpff filed out to Hester and Melter was hit by Morgan. Kelly drove a hard single to right center, scoring Moorehead, but was caught at second, Galena to Potts.

Then the seventh.

The fatal seventh ended Boise hopes. Huelsman opened up with a single and French repeated. Davis was hit by Melter, filling the bases, and Galena singled, scoring Huelsman. Tonneman hit a liner into Umpire Scott, scoring French and Davis. Caldwell singled, scoring Galena, and Morgan beat out a bunt, filling the bases again. Potts singled, scoring Tonneman and Caldwell. Hester was given life when Potts was forced out at second. Huelsman hit to Blauser, who got Hester at second, with the help of Schimpff, who relayed to Thomas, completing the second out double.

Salt Lake counted again in the eighth when Davis singled to left and went to third when Coleman, who relieved Weaver, threw the ball over second. Bostick should have taken the throw, but failed to cover. Davis scored on a squeeze play.

The Boise spurt in the last was cut short by a quick double, French to Potts to Hester.

The teams will meet again this afternoon and there promises to be some real things doing when "Silent John" Fitzgerald, the Skyscraper's slabster, will oppose Red Toner, Boise's best bet.

BUTTE DEFENDS THE INFANTS IN A CLOSE GAME

Butte, Mont., June 30.—Butte took the first game played with Murray on the home grounds today 3 to 1. Jesse Garrett, who wore a Butte uniform for the first time since he was released as manager of Helena, allowing Murray three hits and no two of these in one inning. Murray's only score was the result of a bad error by Brady.

After the first inning Garrett toyed with the Murray contenders and only one runner was advanced to third base. With things looking tough, Garrett tightened up in two innings and struck out Auer and Pendleton. Sharp fielding by Murray infield kept thirteen hits to three runs, for Butte hit freely.

In the sixth with three on bases and no one out, Dawson pulled out with one run when Sawyer, who had been taking all kinds of chances on the bases, tried to steal home while Dawson was winding up and was caught. Marshall beat out two bunts after the infield had been drawn close to the plate to stop him.
